A Teacher

For over twenty years now I have spent a lot of time going over the Bible, other books and studies, following leads on the internet and listening to the Holy Spirit, all in an effort to do as the scriptures tells us to do.

2 Timothy 2:15 (KJV), "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

I'm not the most interesting speaker, but I tell you that I am committed to 1 Peter 4:11

1 Peter 4:11, "If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God gives: ..."

This is ingrained into the core of my calling in Christ and therefore a part of who I am and who I have become. What I care about is that the word of God is accurate and true and rightly divided. I work hard to do that, because that's what a teacher is.

Proverbs 25:2, "It is the glory of God to CONCEAL a thing: but the honor of kings is to SEARCH OUT a MATTER."

Now let us go and open our Bibles and search out the matter and “Look a little closer.”

II Tim. 2:15, Study to show yourself approved unto God.

To the study of that which is greater than ourselves.

Hebrews 6:1-3 “Therefore, leaving the elementary teaching about the Christ, let us press on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God,² of instruction about washings and laying on of hands, and about the resurrection of the dead and eternal judgment.³ And this we will do, if God permits.”

The Bible has so much to tell us that we have missed out on over the years. To all the teachings in scripture there are Mysteries and still unknown stories to be discovered in the Bible to those who spend the time to study, showing themselves approved unto God. And so let us look into one of the better hidden truths of scripture. It is old and yet it is new.

Let me tell you a mystery and it deals with creation and the time before Adam. Now there are basically two Christian views on this subject, the NEW-WORLD Creation theory and the OLD-WORLD Creation theory. The first one believes that everything was created in six days, but with a since of age to it. Basically, that God created the earth in a state of being very old. The second theory is that God created the earth but over a period of time long before Gen.1:3-31.

Now, just for the record, I am an Old-World Creationist believer. This is the only way that the Bible and scripture fit seamlessly together. The Bible talks about the world that then existed and it has only been through prayer and the study of God’s word that my eyes been opened to new truths in scripture that have been there forever.

One thing I know is true and will always be true. In my 68 years of knowing Jesus as my Savior, I have found that the Bible has always been true in what it tells me. Where there is a difference of opinion then scripture wins out over our personal views. So, I study and like Paul tells says “Leaving the elementary teachings,” for new believers, but then pushing on to Discipleship teaching, rightly dividing the Word of God, as we are led by the Holy Spirit.

Touched By the Hand of God

Genesis 1:1, “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.”

In the first verse of scripture, we find some remarkable pieces of evidence of supernatural authorship. It is here that we find where God tells us of WHEN, WHERE and WHAT He created

- When: In the Beginning: [TIME] has also been translated “dateless past”
- Where: The heavens: [SPACE] plural, meaning the three heavens,
- What: The earth: [MATTER] “erets,” meaning dry ground, dirt.

Elohim tells us in this very first verse of the scriptures when He created Time (endless and eternal), Space and the expanse of it and Matter the things we can see and touch.

For thousands of years scientists and philosophers have speculated on the makeup of the universe. It wasn't until the twentieth century that physicists confirmed that the universe and its foundation consist of Space and Time. The two of these concepts are so closely linked that astrophysics speaks of a Space-Time Continuum. Science today seeks the knowledge of what was told us in the first verse of scripture over thirty centuries ago.

As an additional note, the “time” we speak of here is not the same as described in Gen.1:3-5. “In the beginning” time is endless and eternal; it has no end. The evening and the morning of v4 were not the first twilight of eternity, but rather for us is a boundary line between time and eternity. Time as we count is temporal, in that it has a beginning (Gen 1:3-5) and will have an end (Rev. 21). It marks a time when Elohim began to create. He did it ... in the beginning (in the Berisheet of time) of the “dateless past.”

Psalm 33:9, “For He spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast.”

The First Hierarchy

Seraphim – The closest to God, burning with love of God. The burning one with six wings

Cherubim – Radiant with wisdom, guardians of divine mysteries.

Thrones /ofm – Bearers of God's authority and judgment, embodying order and stability.

May I now present to you, what has been on my heart to share, that of the deeper truths, and of the mysteries of scripture ... behold I show you a mystery (1 Cor. 15:51). And there are many in the Bible, and we may not learn the meaning of all of them. What we don't know or understand we take then by faith, because without faith it is impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6).

So, let's get started where the scriptures begin ... with "In the beginning God created," can anyone tell me how long ago God created according to Genesis 1:1? The Bible has much to say about events that happened in "the world that then existed" (2 Peter 3:6).

Gen. 1:1 (Hebrew text) "Berisheet bara Elohim Alef-Tav (Alpha / Omega) el sha-may-im et el eh-rets English translation "In the dateless past God the Son brought out of nothing the Heavens and the earth.

Now Jesus tells us in Rev. 22 exactly who He is, and He speaks of Himself as it says in Gen.1:1.

Rev. 1:3, 22:13, "¹³I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

In Genesis 1:2 says, "And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

In the Hebrew the word "Heaven" is plural "Heavens" meaning the three heavens, and two more words "form, and void" which in the Hebrew is "tohu wa-bohu" meaning it became formless and void.,

Isaiah 45:18 (KJV) ¹⁸"For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else." And so, it became inhabited ... but by who?

If we move on to Gen. 1:31 we hear God declaring His work as "Very Good." God certainly wouldn't have called it "very good" if it was formless and void.

And so, the earth of v1 was perfect and complete and it pleased God, a perfect place, a garden place.

PART I

THE WORLD BEFORE ... ADAM & EVE

oday I'd like to talk about a time that the scriptures refer to (without directly saying it), as a "Time Before Time Began."

Genesis 1:5 (KJV), ⁵ And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

This is the beginning of the proverbial time clock (roughly 6000 years ago), as we know it, going forward from this point on.

For us, time begins at Genesis 1:3-5. This verse becomes a boundary line drawn in the sand, between eternity past, and the Ante-Diluvian Age.¹ As it is said in v5 that the "evening and the morning were the first day," being one rotation of the earth.

Our study will be focused on the events that took place before this first day and are most certainly pre-Adamic in its scope. This period is the (First of seven ages of God) and it has a name, it is called the "Creative Age of God," the Alpha Age, when God began to create. When God created the world, the universe and everything in it. The Angelic Host was already there, they gave to Him praise and worship for the things He had spoken into existence.

Job 38:7, "The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy."

These spiritual beings have unique roles and characteristics, but they share a common purpose. Their job is to worship God and minister to His people.

Lucifer was one of God's angels, a magnificent Archangel of God. The Prophet Ezekiel described him for us.

Lucifer was indeed a mighty Archangel and anointed Cherub. He was placed in Eden when God first created it, in the beginning, along with possibly as many as 1/3 of the angel hosts.² God created Eden to be inhabited and here we see when it was first inhabited, as we will read shortly, “before there was a man on the earth, equals PRE-ADAMIC.” Not inhabited by some other form of human beings, but rather angelic in their nature, and like Lucifer ... until sin was found in them also.

A PLACE CALLED EDEN THE GARDEN OF GOD THE PLACE AND ITS INHABITANTS

² The order of the angels, Ref. my study on the Gap Theory pg21 (Cherubim, Seraphim, Teraphim)

Who Lucifer Was

Question: Was there anyone in Eden before Adam and Eve?

Ezekiel 28:12-15, ¹² ““This is what the Lord God says: You had the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. ¹³ You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering: The ruby, the topaz and the diamond; The beryl, the onyx and the jasper; the lapis lazuli, the turquoise and the emerald; and the gold, the workmanship of your settings and sockets, was in you. On the day that you were created they were prepared.

¹⁴ You were the anointed cherub who covers, and I placed you there. You were on the holy mountain of God; You walked in the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁵ You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created until unrighteousness was found in you.

It is God who answers our question, when He said, “I placed you there,” speaking to Lucifer, and if to Lucifer then all the angels who followed him, hundreds of thousands if not multiple millions. And the Lord put Lucifer and his angels there to inhabit Eden ... and they did!

Scripture speak briefly of Lucifers kingdom and how bad Lucifer was and evil in his trading. We don't know how long all this existed, it was a long, long time. Again, the Bible tells us three times of all that went on was before man was created,

NO MAN!

We find in scriptures that there was a time before Adam, before man existed. The events thereof, I believe happened in Eden the Garden of God, we will get into that later.

To the use of the term “No Man” in scripture: A quick search and we can find at least three times that scripture declares to us, “There was no man.” Adam and Eve were both absent from prior events that we will be looking at, but we also don't read of any births in that same time frame either, that doesn't mean that there were other human beings on this earth before them.

Take a look at the 3 times in scripture God tells us of the absence of man

1. Gen. 2:5, “And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.”
2. Job 38:26 (KJV) “To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man,”
3. Jermiah 4:25 (KJV) “I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.”

Truly Adam and Eve were the first Man and the first Woman that God created. If they were the first, then who is the scriptures talking about? In the next section we will be looking at what I think is the answer to that question and looking into Scriptures in which the events of that day were happening at the “time Before time began,” when there “was no man” upon the face of the Earth.

Read what the prophet said about this time of beginnings.

WHO LUCIFER WAS

Of His Beauty and Perfection:

As we are told in Ezekiel’s narrative, that Lucifer was the one who served faithfully in God’s Kingdom. He was a model of perfection, full of wisdom and beauty. For some period of time in creation past, Lucifer existed as part of God’s beautiful perfection. He could not be improved in any way. Every part of him added up to complete wisdom and beauty.

When Lucifer worshiped before the throne, out of his mouth came the sounds of a majestic choir and beautiful music.

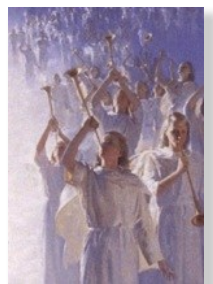

Ezekiel 28:13-19, ¹³You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering: The ruby, the topaz and the diamond; the beryl, the onyx and the jasper; the lapis lazuli, the turquoise and the emerald; and the gold, the workmanship of your settings and sockets, was in you. On the day that you were created they were prepared. ¹⁴ You were the anointed cherub who covers, and I placed you there. You were on the holy mountain of God; you walked in the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁵You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created until unrighteousness was found in you.

It was not necessary for Lucifer to learn to play a musical instrument in order to praise God. He had a built-in pipe organ that was part of who he was. Lucifer did what a musical instrument would do in the hands of a skilled musician. Lucifer didn't have to look for someone to play the organ so that he could sing the doxology... he was the doxology. It is no wonder that when Lucifer fell from grace that one of the first things he perverted was music.

Lucifer was also adorned with precious stones and gold. He was found blameless in all his ways from the very day he was created. This statement testifies to the fact that at least for some period of time he did God’s will and all the Kingdom of Heaven was in harmony. There was a time when according to scripture:

Job 38:7, “The morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy.”

Lucifer is included in this as a “son of God,” a “morning star.”

SO WHAT WENT WRONG

Ezekiel 28:15, “You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created until unrighteousness was found in you.”

Isaiah 14:12-15 (NKJV), ¹²“How you are fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How you are cut down to the ground, you who weakened the nations! ¹³For you have said in your heart: ‘I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation on the farthest sides of the north; ¹⁴I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High.’ ¹⁵Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the lowest depths of the Pit.

Ezekiel tells us that sin was found in Lucifer. He does not tell us when this happened, only that it did happen. Let’s re-read why Lucifer fell from grace as hard as he did.

1st, He (Lucifer) Weakened the Nations, and you might ask, “What Nations?” It was Lucifer who said v13 above, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. A throne equals a kingdom and a kingdom equals nations. Does not God even sit on His throne, in His kingdom? In his own words Lucifer states his goal, to “exalt his throne above the stars of God. The stars of God are His angels. Lucifer not only wanted to be over the 3rd of the angelic host, but he wanted to be over ALL of them.

2nd, v14, “I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High.” Satan wanted to sit in the place of God, where God sits and rule as God does. All creation would answer only to him, but there is more ...

Ezekiel 28:16-19, ¹⁶By the abundance of your trade you were internally filled with violence, and you sinned; therefore, I have cast you as profane from the mountain of God. And I have destroyed you, you covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. ¹⁷Your heart was haughty because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom by reason of your splendor. I threw you to the ground; I put you before kings, that they may see you. ¹⁸By the multitude of your wrongdoings, in the unrighteousness of your trade you profaned your sanctuaries. Therefore, I have brought fire from the midst of you; it has consumed you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the eyes of all who see you. ¹⁹All who know you among the peoples are appalled at you; you have become terrified and you will cease to be forever.””

I was eagerly looking for more from the Lord, looking everywhere in scripture, then God showed me my answer, where I never thought it would be, because I had never heard this before. So, I think it’s time we hear from someone else ... the prophet Jerimiah

WHAT DID JEREMIAH SEE?

One of the first Bible reference I ever found in the Bible was right there in Genesis 1:2 and it pointed me to Jeremiah 4:23 to the time the prophet had a vision of the pre-adamic world. the prophet was a seer and he saw the earth and described it as a “fruitful place” v26, (hence Eden the garden), (Remember God says He was the one who put Lucifer in Eden, (Ezek. 28:14), but Jeremiah also saw its destruction taking place. Jeremiah saw that the heavens above had no light. The mountains were quaking being jolted back and forth.

Jeremiah 4:23-28 (NASB), ²³ I looked at the earth, and behold, it was a formless and desolate emptiness; And to the heavens, and they had no light. ²⁴ I looked on the mountains, and behold, they were quaking, and all the hills jolted back and forth. ²⁵ I looked, and behold, there was no human, and all the birds of the sky had fled. ²⁶ I looked, and behold, the fruitful land was a wilderness, and all its cities were pulled down Before the Lord, before His fierce anger. ²⁷ For this is what the Lord says: “The whole land shall be a desolation, Yet I will not execute a complete destruction. ²⁸ For this the earth will mourn, And the heavens above will become dark, Because I have spoken, I have purposed, And I have not changed My mind, nor will I turn from it.” (also see Job 9:5-8, Ps. 104:32, Isa 24:1, II Peter 3:3-6)

The Lord God executes a complete judgment on Eden and the waters of the deep became violent and crashed down on the land masses, and the hills and mountains shook and then collapsed into the deepest parts of the sea, the cities and places of worship, all the infrastructure was destroyed by the hand of God. Judgment had come to the kingdom of Lucifer, but God said He would not make a complete destruction v27. All traces of Lucifers actions lay in ruined at the bottom of earth’s oceans. Darkness fell over the kingdom and over Eden, water covered the entire planet, this became the condition of the earth for countless years and Millenniums, the length of time we are not told and will probably never know till we get to heaven.

I believe this was the time of the great Continental Divide in which God pulled the one massive land mass apart and made seven smaller continents,³ and seven great Oceans,⁴ You could look at this as “calling Cards” from God for those who need reminding of who He is.

Now, if we were to compare Jeremiah 4:26-28 above to the Genesis 1:2 account we find that the wording strikes a familiar chord, in its description of the destruction of the Earth and the whole land was made desolate and laid in darkness. I believe that here we find the source of why the earth, after untold years, centuries, maybe even thousands to millions of years (unknown to us) are found exactly as we read it in Gen.1:2. It was made desolate, “tohu wa-bohu.”⁵

⁵ “tohu wa-bohu. Tohu (tōhū) means formlessness, chaos, or a barren desert. Bohu (bōhū) means emptiness or void. Together, they portray an unformed, uninhabited, and watery reality waiting for divine structure.

Since there was “No Man” on the face of the earth, then why would God come down and basically destroy the surface of the earth with strong earthquakes that collapsed the mountain ranges and the tallest peaks on earth be would vanish under the powerful torrents of flood waters that came and covered them all until nothing could be found of their existence again. As man has learned the hard way, down through the centuries, there is only one answer . . . SIN!

Question: Why did the world (Eden) become formless and void?

The basic answer, which I think we all know, but still must be stated ... because of Lucifers sin, but God in His anger went still further, and God said “I will not make a full end” let’s look at what God told Job.

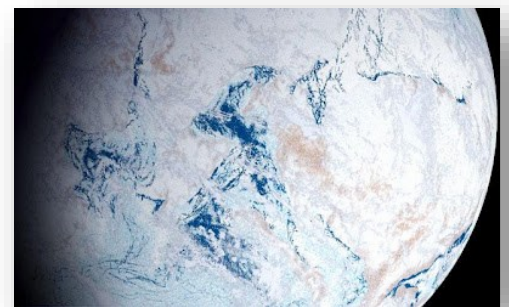

WHAT GOD TOLD JOB

Job 9:5-9, ⁵It is God who removes the mountains, and they do not know how, when He overturns them in His anger. ⁶It is He who shakes the earth from its place, and its pillars tremble; ⁷Who commands the sun not to shine, and puts a seal on the stars; ⁸who alone stretches out the heavens, and tramples down the waves of the sea;

Job 38: 4-11, “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? tell Me, if you have understanding, ⁵who set its measurements? Since you know. or who stretched the measuring line over it? ⁶On what were its bases sunk? or who laid its cornerstone, ⁷when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy? ⁸“Or who enclosed the sea with doors when it went out from the womb, bursting forth; ⁹when I made a cloud its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling bands, ¹⁰and I placed boundaries on it and set a bolt and doors, ¹¹and I said, ‘As far as this point you shall come, but no farther; and here your proud waves shall stop’?

Job 38: 25-30 (KJV); “²⁵Who has divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder; ²⁶To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man; ²⁷To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth? ²⁸Has the rain a father? Or who hath begotten the drops of dew? ²⁹Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it? ³⁰The waters are hidden as with a stone, and the face of the deep (abyss) is FROZEN.

And so the earth, the Garden of God laid in ruin because of Lucifers sin, God judged the place of sin and it will never be the same for ever more, it all lays over turned at the bottom of the sea under many layers of ancient ground and there it will stay until Revelation 21 and 22 happens ... Rev.21:1 “And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.”

2 Peter 3:5-6 (KJV) ⁵ “For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: ⁶ Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:”

Here we find the difference between Lucifers flood and the Flood of Noah. In Noah’s flood the earth was not destroyed, the Ark came to rest on the hills of Mount Ararat.

We find in the Book of Psalms chapter 104 where the Psalmist himself also speaks of these same events and declares the message to us. Are we listening?

Psalms 104:5-9,30,32, ⁵ “Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed forever. ⁶ You covered it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains. ⁷ At your rebuke they fled; at the voice of your thunder, they hasted away. ⁸ They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys to the place which you have founded for them. ⁹ You have set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth. ³⁰ You send forth your spirit, they are created: and you renew the face of the earth. ³² He looked upon the earth, and it trembled: he touched the hills, and they smoke.”

The Psalmist proclaims that God rebuked the flood water and in one day they receded, this was not the case with flood waters in Noah’s flood. With Noah’s flood the water took 150 days (Genesis 8:3–4).

Does any of this sound familiar? Sounds like the Psalmist was borrowing from Jerimiah 4, (i.e. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.)

If you have studied, showing yourself approved of God then know this of the above scripture, that v5 was an act of the original creation Gen.1:1. In v6 from above we see the aftermath of the destruction of Eden buried in the depths of the water and earth Gen.1:2. The results of v7-9 from above can be found in Gen.1:9-10 on the third day of the restoration of the earth.

Does these scriptures and the events they speak of sound like Noah’s flood ...NO! The Bible tells us that Noah’s flood lasted for 40 days⁶ that the water prevailed on the earth for 150 days⁷ and after that time the waters gradually receded from the earth so that by the 7th month and the 17th day, the Ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.⁸ A year and two months and twenty-seven days later the earth was dry enough so that Noah, his family, and the animals could leave the Ark.⁹ Noah's flood did not destroy the earth, it did however kill every man, woman and child, and the Nephilim, the watchers and the Mutinous Angels on the earth except for eight people, Noah and his family. No one died in the Lucifer flood as this event happen before the was a man on the earth. In Genesis 9:15 God promises He will never destroy man again with a flood and gave a sign of His promise ... the Rainbow.

⁶ Noah’s flood 40 days – Genesis 7:12,17

⁷ Noah’s flood waters were upon the earth 150 days – Gen.7:24

⁸ Noah’s Ark came to rest on Ararat – Gen.8:4

Unlike the Noahic flood, God gives no promises in the above scriptures quoted from Jeremiah, Isaiah, Job and finally Psalms. No sign given in the Lucifer Flood, because God in His righteous anger did literally destroy the land mass with no promises made, as that there was no one there to receive the promise. Science can see evidence of this Judgment, they call it "Continental Drift." In the beginning the earth was one large land mass, but when God finished His judgment on it, it had been torn into 7 parts and moved into new locations forming 7 new continents and 7 new oceans.¹⁰

At this same time, it is written that he "weakened the nations." Now you may be asking what nations? Let me remind you that within the Kingdom of Heaven there was another kingdom within, and it was ruled over (governorship) by Lucifer. Lucifer ruled over his kingdom and at least one-third of the angels¹¹ were subject to him. A kingdom is also divided up into smaller groups of nations and cities. In this pre-adamic period this kingdom that Lucifer had governorship over had nations and the cities of angelic beings in it. It is to these cities that Jeremiah 4:23-27 speaks to, in the time when God's wrath was poured out.

Lucifer desired to exalt his throne above the "Stars of God" a reference to the other two-thirds of the angels. He wanted to sit upon the "mountain of God."

Isaiah 14:13-15 "For you have said in your heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds:

His mention of the "Mountain of God" is speaking about the government (implies rulership), or the throne of God. Now there is no way to even attempt this without some type of violence or war taking place. For all that Lucifer was given and all that God created good and holy in him, he gave it up in an attempt to be like God and rebelled against his creator and convinced one-third of the angels under him to rebel also.

⁹ Noah's family and animals disembark from the Ark – Gen. 8:16

¹¹ The idea of 1/3 of the angels fell with Satan is found in Revelation 12:4

And with that Lucifer¹² who will now be forever known as Satan, the Devil (Ma.4:1), Adversary (1 Peter 5:8), The Serpent (Genesis 3:1), The Accuser (Revelation 12:10), Father of all Lies (John 8:44). Each of these names reveals different aspects of his character and actions in the spiritual realm.

Lucifer now known as Satan and his many angels were cast out of heaven and onto the earth. Jesus would later comment on this as He says He saw Satan falling to earth like lightning.

Luke 10:18 “And He said to them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.”

So, Lucifer, the once mighty Arch angel and covering cherubim of the Lord was cast out of heaven and one day will not be allowed back into heaven where he still accuses the righteous. He has an appointment waiting for him in a bottomless pit and the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 12:9-11, ⁹ And the great dragon was thrown down, the serpent of old who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. ¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying,

“Now the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers and sisters has been thrown down, the one who accuses them before our God day and night. ¹¹ And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life even when faced with death.

Now the earth lays quietly under the oceans of water completely destroyed as God said He was going to do (Jer. 4:26-28). And to seal its fate God tells Job that He froze the waters down to the very lowest parts of the abyss, and complete darkness fell onto the earth, and so it was and it happened “in the Dateless Past,” before there was a man on the earth.

PART 2

THE WORLD BEFORE ... THE FLOOD OF NOAH

(Based on a Book by Rick Renner by the same title)

Restoration

Genesis 1:2, ² And the earth was a formless and desolate emptiness, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

Psalms 104:5-9,30,32, ⁵“Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed forever. ⁶ You covered it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains. ⁷At your rebuke they fled; at the voice of your thunder, they hasted away. ⁸ They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys to the place which you have founded for them. ⁹ You have set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth. ³⁰ You send forth your spirit, they are created: and you renew the face of the earth. ³² He looked upon the earth, and it trembled: he touched the hills, and they smoke.”

The Psalmist proclaims that God rebuked the flood water and in one day they receded, this was not the case with flood waters in Noah’s flood. With Noah’s flood the water took 150 days (Genesis 8:3–4).

Genesis 1:2: And the earth was a formless and desolate emptiness, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. ³ Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. ⁴ God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light “day,” and the darkness He called “night.” And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

With this, the six days of the restoration of the earth began. It is interesting to note that as you read Genesis chapter 1 that God uses the word create only three times, in v1 (the original creation), and then v20-22 (fish in the sea and the animals), v26 (man), this word in the Hebrew is {bara}, and conveys the thought of creation “ex nihilo” (out of nothing). The rest of the time the Lord uses “made or “let”

which is the Hebrew word “asah” {aw-saw'} Strong's #6213, meaning to make something from something else, to let it become. In the rest of the text, we read that God “made or let” the firmament, stars and the sun be restored to their previous state what they once were.

ie: in chapter one the word create is used only 3 times v1, v21, v27, while made is used 3 times v7, v16 and v25 and let is used 10 times v3, v6, v9, v9, v11, v14, v15, v20, v24, v26

These two words “made and let” are not words of an original creative act of God, but rather words of permission. They imply that after the original earth was brought into a state of waste and emptiness by the water, that now God was giving His creation permission to return to its original creative state. Scripture says in v12 that “the grass, herb yielding seeds and the fruit trees whose seed was already in the ground.” He didn't have to create the seeds they were already there, He was giving them permission to regrow again as they once had.

Even when God was addressing Adam and Eve in Gen 1:28 he tells them “... Be fruitful, and multiply, and REPLENISH the earth.” How can they “replenish” what was never filled to begin with? There is also no mention of what the earth was filled with. Adam and Eve where the first humans, so what was here before them that God was referring to... hum!

Genesis 2:4-5, “This is the history of the heavens and the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, before any plant of the field was in the earth and before any herb of the field had grown. For the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the ground;”

Genesis 2:5 makes an interesting comment claiming that this history (generations) came before there was any man (Adam). Well, as far as I know it takes more than 1 week of six days to equal a history. The history of the earth goes back to v1 and the original creation of the earth in the Berisheet of time.

CREATION OF MAN

Genesis 1:26-27, 2:7-8, 18, 20-23, 3:20

^{1:26} And God said, let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. ²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

^{2:7} And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. ⁸ And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

^{2:18} And the Lord God said, it is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.

2:21 And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh instead thereof; 22 And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. 23 And Adam said that this is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

3:20 And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

Twofold: The sin of Adam and the sin of Eve

Eve's sin: Eve's sin wasn't due to a long thought-out process ending in her making a bad decision. Her sin came from what seems to have been a casual conversation with a serpent that lied to her, and a spur of the moment decision was made. I think the concept of a lie was something Eve hadn't encountered before. The logic of the lie seems to have intrigued her that she could be like God and know right from wrong. Was that even possible? Eve didn't even know what wrong was. Her innocence was pure, but she wasn't the one with the authority. She didn't know that the serpent was using her to get to Adam.

So, she listened to the words of the snake (who is Satan) over her husband's words of warning about this tree. I think in the midst of this conversation she just simply took a bite. I'm sure it didn't take long before she began to feel different; she then gave the fruit to Adam.

Notice: nothing happened when Eve sinned, all of nature and the garden she lived in, everything she knew didn't change, but she did.

Adam's sin: Adam listened to the words of Eve over the commands of God. His was the greater sin, for it was given to Adam authority (Dominion) over the earth and all animals in the air, land and sea, this would also include Eve. The greater responsibility was given to Adam. So, it was when Adam willfully disobeyed God that was the moment sin came into the world.

In Genesis 5:2 it says that God called their names "Adam." It wouldn't be until after their sin that (the man) Adam changed the woman's name to Eve because she would be the mother of all living. This shows that Adam could think and make decisions based on his reasoning. It also showed that he had the authority over Eve to change something that God had done. With that, she would be forever known as Eve, the mother of all living.

In Genesis 5:5 scripture says that Adam lived 930 years and begot sons and daughters. In the book of Jubilees, it suggests that Adam and Eve had a total of 56 children (33 sons and 23 daughters), This is repeated in the writings of Flavius Josephus.

THE MOTHER PROPHECY¹³

¹³ "The Mideast Beast" by: Joel Richardson pg.16

After the fall of Adam and Eve, the scriptures give us an account of the punishment God gave to both of them and to Satan the snake. It is a very important prophecy that is worth a second look. In one simple verse, God gave an overview of the entirety of redemptive history.

Genesis 3:15, “And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed; it shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”

Note: “enmity,” is defined as being opposed to, or hostile to, a deep-rooted hatred for someone, or a group, strife.

Eve, the mother of all humanity sinned, and God declared from that day forward there would be hostility between herself and Satan. Beyond this, Satan’s “seed,” or followers, would be at enmity with the offspring of Eve, those who did not follow Satan. But even more important, Satan’s seed would be at war with the “SEED,” which is the Messiah, and His followers (ie: good vs. evil).

According to this ancient prophecy, history would tell the story of the people of Satan in conflict with the people of God. Then comes the glorious promise that although Satan would merely bruise the heel of the Messiah, in the end, the Messiah will crush the skull of Satan as well as his followers.

In this single verse, in one brief declaration, we have a synopsis of redemptive history. It then becomes for us a type of “MOTHER PROPHECY” of which all other prophetic promises concerning the Messiah come from.

THE FULFILLING OF THE MOTHER PROPHECY

Two part prophecy:

Genesis 3:15a “And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed;”

As stated earlier “ENMITY,” is defined as being opposed to, or hostile to, a deep-rooted hatred for someone. History has proved this to be true and accurate. As all men are born of the woman, there are always those who will choose the darker side as they align themselves with the evil and self-centeredness of this world. There are also those who will choose righteousness and the good that is in the world and by their very nature choose to serve God.

These two opposites have been engaged in war, fighting and killing each other since Cain killed his brother Abel. As long as there is a sin nature there are those who will choose it over God. There will be six thousand years of the seed of Satan fighting the seed of Eve. There will be no end in sight until the King of all Kings comes and puts a stop to all the madness and killing.

Genesis 3:15b “it shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”

In this second half of the prophecy God is speaking directly to Satan. The word translated “bruise” in reference to the head would be better translated “crush.” God is saying that His Son “His heel” will crush your (Satan) head, while you (Satan) will bruise his (Jesus) heel. Let’s look at what happened in history that would begin the fulfillment of the second half of the prophecy.

This takes us first to the story of David and Goliath.

Here is the short version for the sake of time. Goliath was a very large man anywhere from 6’-9” to 9’-9”. He came from the town of Gath (1 Sam.17:4) and was the chief warrior and champion of the Philistine army. He came out onto the field of battle and challenged anyone from Israel to come out and fight him and thus settle the battle that way.

David on the other hand was just a teenager who had come out of the fields tending sheep and now was the shield-bearer and harpist to King Saul. David grew tired of hearing Goliath taunting God’s people, so he volunteered to go and kill the pagan Philistine.

1 Samuel 17: 49-51, ⁴⁹ “And David put his hand into his bag and took from it a stone and slung it and struck the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, so that he fell on his face to the ground. ⁵⁰ Thus David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and he struck the Philistine and killed him; but there was no sword in David’s hand. ⁵¹ Then David ran and stood over the Philistine and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him and cut off his head with it.”

To the victor goes the spoils of war and so David not only keep the head of Goliath, but his armor also. His greatest trophy, however, was the head which was so large that David would need both hands to carry it, or he simply dragged it behind him. David took the head of Goliath to Jerusalem, but his armor he put in his tent (1 Samuel 17:51–54).

The Jews would not have permitted the Gentile giant’s head to be buried within the city walls. It would have been buried outside the city walls. David took it outside of the city to a hill just outside the walls and buried it there. This place became known as the “place of the skull” and not just any skull, but the skull of Goliath. The hill became known by another name which is “Golgotha” The term is a corruption of Hebrew for “Goliath of Gath”: Goliath Gath > GoliGath > GolGath > GolGatha ... Golgotha.

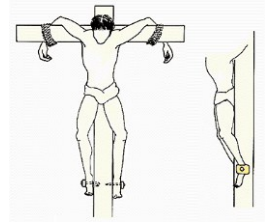

THE CRUSHING OF THE HEAD AND THE BRUISING OF THE HEAL

Let's take a second and look back at the prophecy of Genesis 3:15b "... it shall bruise your [Satan] head, and you shall bruise his [Jesus] heel." For this we take a look at the crucifixion of Jesus.

Mark 15:22, "They brought Jesus to the place called Golgotha (which means "the place of the skull")."

Luke 23:33, "When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him there, along with the criminals--one on his right, the other on his left."

It is noteworthy to mention at this point, that the two feet of the one being nailed to the cross was not nailed on top of each other as traditionally shown. The feet were nailed to opposite sides of the upright beam.¹⁴ A nail was then driven through the heel bone and into the wood, making sure the body would not come off the cross. A fulfillment of Genesis 3:15.

What does all this mean?

Many times, in scripture Jesus claimed to be the son of David, King of Israel.¹⁵ David was the one who slew Goliath and buried his head on Golgotha. It was the same hill in which Jesus was crucified. The cross of Jesus was standing on the skull of Satan's champion Goliath, in essence "Crushing it." At the same time all Satan could do was to "bruise His (Jesus) heel." A direct fulfillment of the prophecy of Gen 3:15.

"ENMITY between your seed and her seed"

In the first part of the prophecy, Genesis 3:15a "And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed." All the wars of history of good vs. evil have been in fulfillment of the first part of the "Mother Prophecy." The seed of Satan is all those who decide to follow Satan and do his bidding here on earth. Satan and his demons will forever be at odds and battle the seed of all those who follow God. It has been the classic battles of right vs. wrong, good vs. evil (nations and/or personal battles) and so it will be until Jesus comes back and puts a stop to it all. Jesus will set up His Kingdom and men will no longer study war and there will peace at last.

Isaiah 2:4, "And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore."

With all this having been said there is another point to mention at this time. Ever since the fall of Lucifer, Satan has sought out ways to ruin God's redemptive plan and scripture tells us of at least four times that he tried.

THE FOUR-FOLD EVIL PLAN

Four Attempts to Ruin God's Plan

- Sin Must Come into the world (Gen. 3:4-6)
- The Corruption of Man's Seed (Gen. 6:1-4)
- The Killing of the Children (Jer. 31:15; Mat. 2:6, 18)
- The Crucifixion (Mat. 37:35-37)

The Four Attempts to Ruin God's Plan

#1 – Sin Must Come into the World

How to get sin into the world?

Genesis 3:4-6, “⁴And the serpent said unto the woman, you shall not surely die: ⁵For God knows that in the day you eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. ⁶And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

Twofold: The sin of Adam and the sin of Eve

Eve's sin: Eve's sin wasn't due to a long thought-out process ending in her making a bad decision. Her sin came from what seems to have been a casual conversation with a snake that lied to her, and a spur of the moment decision was made. I think the concept of a lie was something Eve hadn't encountered before. The logic of the lie seems to have intrigued her that she could be like God and know right from wrong. Was that even possible? Eve didn't even know what wrong was. Her innocence was pure, but she wasn't the one with the authority. She didn't know that the snake was using her to get to Adam.

So, she listened to the words of the snake (who is Satan) over her husband's words of warning about this tree. Actually, I think that in the midst of this conversation she just simply took a bite. I'm sure it didn't take long before she began to feel different; she then gave the fruit to Adam.

Notice, nothing happened when Eve sinned. All of nature and the garden she lived in, everything she knew didn't change, but she did.

Adam's sin: Adam listened to the words of Eve over the commands of God. His was the greater sin, for it was given to Adam authority (Dominion) over the earth and all animals in the air, land and sea, this would also include Eve. The greater responsibility was given to Adam. So, it was when Adam willfully disobeyed God that was the moment sin came into the world.

In Genesis 5:2 it says that God called both their names “Adam.” It wouldn’t be until after their sin that (the man) Adam changed the woman’s name to Eve because she would be the mother of all living. This shows that Adam could think and make decisions based on his reasoning. It also showed that he had the authority over Eve to change something that God had done. With that, she would be forever known as Eve, the mother of all living.

#2 - The Corruption of Man’s Seed

Now that sin had entered the world, Satan’s next attempt was to ruin God’s plan to bring His Son into the world, through a Holy People. To this end Satan sought to contaminate the blood line by inter-breeding with the daughters of men. From them came the Nephilim.

Genesis 6:1-4, “And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, ² That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. ³ And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years. ⁴ There were giants in the earth in those days; and also, after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.”

The corruption of the seed of man was so prevalent on the earth that it was no longer pure human DNA, but a mix of the fallen angels and man. In this state the individual could not be purified by the blood of any sacrifice, or of Jesus. God had a plan to counter this attempt by Satan. In v3 above, God gave man 120 years, and told Noah to build a boat. At the appointed time, it was Noah (his wife), his three sons and their wives and all the animals that God would bring into the Ark. The earth was then purified by the flood, a type of baptism by water spoken of by Peter (1 Peter 3:18-20).

After the flood you can still see signs that the seed of the Nephilim made it through the flood in the wives of the three sons of Noah. If you project this out many generations, you can see Nephilim races and cultures around the world. The scripture records such a place and culture.

The Twelve Spies: (Numbers 13:1-33-14:36), after their experiences at Mt. Sinai, Moses was about to lead Israel across the Jordan River into the land flowing with milk and honey called Canaan. First, Moses sent out 12 spies to get an idea of what was waiting for them in the land of Canaan. The spies came back with reports that it was truly a land flowing with milk and honey. To prove their point, they brought back huge fruit vines (13:23-27), one grape that would be the entire meal. The men also brought back stories of the giants that were in the land calling them (13:28-33) the descendants of Anak (Sons of the Anakites/Anakim).¹⁶ The Hebrew spies thought they were descendants of the Nephilim v33. Now you might ask, “I thought the giants all died in the flood of Noah?” and they did. At the time the blood DNA of all men had been corrupt except that of Noah and his family. The corrupt DNA line would have had to come through the three wives of Noah’s sons.

Not all Nephilim¹⁷ were taller than the trees and sat on houses picking their teeth with a tree. The scripture tells us of a giant in the land of the Philistines fighting against the army of Israel named Goliath. Goliath was maybe nine or ten feet tall and powerful, but he was still flesh and blood until he met a skinny teenager who shepherded sheep and knew how to use a slingshot.

The Four Attempts to Ruin God’s Plan

#3 - The Killing of the Children

The third attempt came after the birth of Jesus when King Herod realized the wise men were not coming back.

Matthew 2:16, “Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became very enraged, and sent and slew all the male children who were in Bethlehem and all its vicinity, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had determined from the magi.”

Prophecy fulfillment:

Jeremiah 31:15 (NASB), Thus says the LORD, “A voice is heard in Ramah, Lamentation and bitter weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, Because they are no more.”

Matthew 2:18 (NASB), “A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children; and she would not be comforted, because they are not.”

With all the attacks by Satan, at every turn God had an answer and the plan moved forward. Jesus was anywhere from 6 months old to 2 years old when Joseph was told rise and take his family into Egypt (Matthew 2).

¹⁷ <https://www.gotquestions.org/giants-in-the-Bible.html>

The Four Attempts to Ruin God's Plan

#4 - The Crucifixion

Matthew 27:35-37, ³⁵ And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, they parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. ³⁶ And sitting down they watched him there; ³⁷ And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.”

The crucifixion of Jesus was not a setback for the plan of God. Satan in his misunderstanding of the prophecy thought he would win by Jesus' death on the cross. It was in fact only the fulfillment of the plan of God to redeem all mankind, established from before the foundation of the world (Gen. 1:1, Beresheet). This was to be Satan's setback, because death could not hold Jesus, enabling Jesus to literally crush the serpents' head. The killing of Jesus was actually Satan's own undoing. The Genesis 3:15 prophecy tells of Satan's own defeat “it shall bruise your head.”

What Satan did not understand was that God Himself would incarnate from a woman and that He would become a man and yet still God (God-man) in the flesh.

Jesus, the Son of God did not come into this world having a grand and noble appearance, or twelve legions of angels at His side proving His command authority in the heavens. The Son of God, the creator of the world (Jn. 1.1) came into this world in the humblest of places, even among men. In a lowly manger with barely a covering over His mother's head for shelter, is where Mary gave birth to the Son of God.

Satan's hatred for the women is ongoing, and we will see how his hatred for women is playing itself out later in those who follow him and do his bidding. Through a woman the Savior was born, and the seed of Satan still fights the seed of God, but even this too will one day come to an end. One day we will study war no more, in the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.

OF THE TIMES OF ENOCH

Enoch and 200 Fallen Angels

Scriptural text taken from the Book of Enoch¹⁸ BoE

In the non-canonical ancient Jewish text the Book of Enoch, tells us of a time when 200 divine beings (Angels) known as the Watchers swore an oath that they would descend to Mount Hermon on Earth, take human wives, and rebel against their heavenly purpose.

Now Enoch was the Son of Jared, who was the 5th in the patriarchal line from Adam. In those days sin multiplied itself at the hands of the Nephilim.¹⁹ The Nephilim are the offspring of approximately 200 fallen watcher angels who descended to Earth, to Mount Herman (located at the Northern border of ancient Israel), and swore an oath between themselves to take human wives, and rebel against their heavenly purpose. This was the time when men multiplied on the face of the Earth, and sons and beautiful daughters were born unto them.

Section 5

Chapter 6 - The Fallen Angels (Follows Genesis 6)

¹ And it came to pass when the children of men had multiplied that in those days were born unto them beautiful and comely daughters.

² And the angels, the children of the heaven, saw and lusted after them, and said to one another: "Come, let us choose us wives from among the children of men and beget us children."

³ And Semjaza, who was their leader, said to them: "I fear you will not

⁴ indeed agree to do this deed, and I alone shall have to pay the penalty of a great sin." And they all answered him and said: "Let us all swear an oath, and all bind ourselves by mutual curses

¹⁸ The Book of Enoch: The Book of Enoch Online

¹⁹ The Book of Enoch Chapter 6: Watchers are celestial or angelic beings who descended to Earth, while Nephilim are the hybrid giant offspring born from the Watchers mating with human women. A group of about 200 of them rebelled, left their heavenly domain, and took human wives. They also taught humanity forbidden arts like metallurgy, sorcery, and warfare. Some teach that this group of fallen angels will again be on the earth during the 7-year Tribulation of the Book of Revelation.

⁵ not to abandon this plan but to do this thing." Then they all swore together and bound themselves

⁶ by mutual curses upon it. And there were in all two hundred; who descended in the days of Jared on the summit of Mount Hermon, and they called it Mount Hermon, because they had sworn

Chapter 7 - The Taking of the Women

¹ And all the others together with them took unto themselves wives, and each chose for himself one, and they began to go in unto them and to defile themselves with them.

² And they taught them charms and enchantments, and the cutting of roots, and made them acquainted with plants. And they

³ became pregnant, and they bare great giants, whose height was three thousand ells.* Who consumed

⁴ all the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, the giants turned against

⁵ them and devoured mankind. And they began to sin against birds, and beasts, and reptiles, ⁶ and fish, and to devour one another's flesh, and drink the blood. Then the earth laid accusations against the lawless ones.

*Note: 3000 ells translates roughly, if taken literally, 3,000 ells $\approx$ 4,500 feet (about 1.37 km) nearly a mile tall. This exceeds the height of Noah's Ark in 1 Enoch (300 cubits $\approx$ 4,500 ft)

Chapter 8 - The Teaching of Hidden Things

¹ And Azazel taught men to make swords, and knives, and shields, and breastplates, and made known to them the metals of the earth and the art of working them, and bracelets, and ornaments, and the use of antimony, and the beautifying of the eyelids, and all kinds of costly stones, and all

² coloring tints and there arose much godlessness, and they committed fornication, and they

³ were led astray and became corrupt in all their ways. Semjaza taught enchantments and root-cuttings, Armaros the resolving of enchantments, Baraqijal taught astrology, Kokabel the constellations, Ezeqeel the knowledge of the clouds, Araziel the signs of the earth, Shamsiel the signs of the sun, and Sarel the course of the moon. And as men perished, they cried, and their cry went up to heaven."

Note: what the angels began teaching man was known as “Forbidden Knowledge.”

The Sin of the Watchers

In the first book of Enoch, Azazel is portrayed as one of the two hundred angel Watchers who, after descending to Earth in lust for human women, resided on Mount Hermon and fathered the giants, identified as the Nephilim, prior to the Flood. Afterwards he (Azazel) corrupted humanity by teaching men the art of crafting metal weapons and armor and women the means of beautifying themselves with hair dyes, face paints, and other cosmetics, enchantments, astrology and signs of the earth and sky. His defeat came at the hand of Raphael who, on God's command, chained him to jagged rocks where he was to remain until the Day of Judgement (The Church calls this judgment “The Great White Throne Judgment”).

The giants that were in the land began eating up all the crops’ men had planted, until the only food left was man himself, and the Nephilim began to devour mankind, even turning on each other. And man began to cry out to the Lord.

Chapter 12 - Enoch the Scribe v3-6

³ And I Enoch was blessing the Lord of majesty and the King of the ages, and lo! the Watchers

⁴ called me -Enoch the scribe- and said to me: 'Enoch, you scribe of righteousness, go, declare to the Watchers of the heaven who have left the high heaven, the holy eternal place, and have defiled themselves with women, and have done as the children of earth do, and have taken unto themselves

⁵ wives: "You have wrought great destruction on the earth: And you shall have no peace nor forgiveness

⁶ of sin: and inasmuch as they delight themselves in their children, The murder of their beloved ones shall they see, and over the destruction of their children shall they lament, and shall make supplication unto eternity, but mercy and peace shall you not attain."

Chapter 13 - Enoch tells his dream to the Watchers and writes down their partition to God v1-10

¹ And Enoch went and said: 'Azazel, you shalt have no peace: a severe sentence has gone forth

² against you to put you in bonds: And you shalt not have toleration nor request granted to you, because of the unrighteousness which you have taught, and because of all the works of godlessness

³ and unrighteousness and sin which you have shown to men.' Then I went and spoke to them all

⁴ together, and they were all afraid, and fear and trembling seized them. And they besought me to draw up a petition for them that they might find forgiveness, and to read their petition in the presence

⁵ of the Lord of heaven. For from thenceforward they could not speak (with Him) nor lift up their ⁶ eyes to heaven for shame of their sins for which they had been condemned. Then I wrote out their petition, and the prayer in regard to their spirits and their deeds individually and in regard to their
⁷ requests that they should have forgiveness and length. And I went off and sat down at the waters of Dan, in the land of Dan, to the south of the west of Hermon: I read their petition till I fell
⁸ asleep. And behold a dream came to me, and visions fell down upon me, and I saw visions of chastisement, and a voice came bidding (me) to tell it to the sons of heaven, and reprimand them.
⁹ And when I awoke, I came unto them, and they were all sitting gathered together, weeping in ¹⁰ 'Abelsjail, which is between Lebanon and Seneser, with their faces covered. And I recounted before them all the visions which I had seen in sleep, and I began to speak the words of righteousness, and to reprimand the heavenly Watchers.

Chapter 14 - Enoch comes before The Great One v2-9, 18-25

² with the command of the Holy Great One in that vision. I saw in my sleep what I will now say with a tongue of flesh and with the breath of my mouth: which the Great One has given to men to ³ converse therewith and understand with the heart. As He has created and given to man the power of understanding the word of wisdom, so hath He created me also and given me the power of reprimanding
⁴ the Watchers, the children of heaven. I wrote out your petition, and in my vision it appeared thus, that your petition will not be granted unto you throughout all the days of eternity, and that judgement
⁵ has been finally passed upon you: yea (your petition) will not be granted unto you. And from henceforth you shall not ascend into heaven unto all eternity, and in bonds of the earth the decree
⁶ has gone forth to bind you for all the days of the world. And (that) previously you shall have seen the destruction of your beloved sons and ye shall have no pleasure in them, but they shall fall before
⁷ you by the sword. And your petition on their behalf shall not be granted, nor yet on your own: even though you weep and pray and speak all the words contained in the writing which I have
⁸ written. And the vision was shown to me thus: Behold, in the vision clouds invited me and a mist summoned me, and the course of the stars and the lightning speed and hastened me, and the winds in ⁹ the vision caused me to fly and lifted me upward and bore me into heaven. And I went in till I drew nigh to a wall which is built of crystals and surrounded by tongues of fire: and it began to frighten me.
¹⁸ ... and I looked and saw therein a lofty throne: its appearance was as crystal, and the wheels thereof as the shining sun, and there was the vision of ¹⁹ cherubim. And from underneath the throne came streams of flaming fire so that I could not look ²⁰ thereon. And the Great Glory sat thereon, and His raiment shone more brightly than the sun and ²¹ was whiter than any snow. None of the angels could enter and could behold His face by reason ²² of the magnificence and glory and no flesh could behold Him. The flaming fire was round about

Him, and a great fire stood before Him, and none around could draw nigh Him: ten thousand times ²³ ten thousand (stood) before Him, yet He needed no counselor. And the most holy ones who were ²⁴ nigh to Him did not leave by night nor depart from Him. And until then I had been prostrated on my face, trembling: and the Lord called me with His own mouth, and said to me: ' Come hither, ²⁵ Enoch and hear my word.' And one of the holy ones came to me and woke me, and He made me rise up and approach the door: and I bowed my face downwards.

Chapter 15 - The Great One's Response v1-12

¹ And He answered and said to me, and I heard His voice: 'Fear not, Enoch, you righteous ² man and scribe of righteousness: approach here and hear my voice. And go, say to the Watchers of heaven, who have sent you to intercede for them: "You should intercede" for men, and not men ³ for you: Wherefore have you left the high, holy, and eternal heaven, and lain with women, and defiled yourselves with the daughters of men and taken to yourselves wives, and done like the children ⁴ of earth, and begotten giants (as your) sons? And though you were holy, spiritual, living the eternal life, you have defiled yourselves with the blood of women, and have begotten (children) with the blood of flesh, and, as the children of men, have lusted after flesh and blood as those also do who die
⁵ and perish. Therefore, have I given them wives also that they might impregnate them, and beget
⁶ children by them, that thus nothing might be wanting to them on earth. But you were formerly ⁷ spiritual, living the eternal life, and immortal for all generations of the world. And therefore, I have not appointed wives for you; for as for the spiritual ones of the heaven, in heaven is their dwelling.
⁸ And now, the giants, who are produced from the spirits and flesh, shall be called evil spirits upon ⁹ the earth, and on the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil spirits have proceeded from their bodies;
because they are born from men and from the holy Watchers is their beginning and primal origin;
¹⁰ they shall be evil spirits on earth, and evil spirits shall they be called. [As for the spirits of heaven, in heaven shall be their dwelling, but as for the spirits of the earth which were born upon the earth, on the earth shall be their dwelling.] And the spirits of the giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle, and work destruction on the earth, and cause trouble: they take no food, but nevertheless ¹² hunger and thirst, and cause offences. And these spirits shall rise up against the children of men and against the women, because they have proceeded from them.

Chapter 16 - The Great One's Response - Continued v1-4

¹ From the days of the slaughter and destruction and death of the giants, from the souls of whose flesh the spirits, having gone forth, shall destroy without incurring judgement - thus shall they destroy until the day of the consummation, the great judgement in which the age shall be

² consummated, over the Watchers and the godless, yea, shall be wholly consummated." And now as to the watchers who have sent you to intercede for them, who had been aforetime in heaven,

³ "You have been in heaven, but all the mysteries had not yet been revealed to you, and you knew worthless ones, and these in the hardness of your hearts you have made known to the women, and through these mysteries women and men work much evil on earth."

⁴ Say to them therefore: " You have no peace."

Chapter 19 - The Great One's Response - Continued v1-4

¹ And Uriel said to me: 'Here shall stand the angels who have connected themselves with women, and their spirits assuming many different forms are defiling mankind and shall lead them astray into sacrificing to demons as gods, (here shall they stand,) till the day of the great judgement in

² which they shall be judged till they are made an end of. And the women also of the angels who

³ went astray *shall become sirens.' And I, Enoch, alone saw the vision, the ends of all things: and no man shall see as I have seen.

*Note: The Greek version of Enoch, which contains the siren passage, was translated from the Aramaic sometime in the first century BCE or CE. The Greek translators used seirenes because that was the closest term in their culture for a hybrid creature that lured men to destruction. Homer's sirens were bird-women, but by the Hellenistic period they were also associated with the sea. The translator's choice shaped how the Enochian sirens were understood for centuries.

For the Ethiopian Christians who preserved the text, the meaning was concrete. The women of the Watchers were not allowed to die. They were transformed into water spirits, a punishment that made them permanent outsiders to both the human and angelic realms. The consequence for ordinary believers was clear: the sea was dangerous not only because of storms but because of the spirits of women who had once loved angels.

Genesis 5:21-23 ²¹ When Enoch had lived 65 years, he became the father of Methuselah. ²² After he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked faithfully with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters. ²³ Altogether, Enoch lived a total of 365 years. ²⁴ Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.

What happened to Enoch? Remember Enoch was a righteous man and walked with God.

Genesis 6:5-8, ⁵ “Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of mankind was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually. ⁶ So the Lord was sorry that He had made mankind on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart. ⁷ Then the Lord said, “I will wipe out mankind whom I have created from the face of the land; mankind, and animals as well, and crawling things, and the birds of the sky. For I am sorry that I have made them.” ⁸ But Noah found favor (Grace) in the eyes of the Lord.

ADAM'S FAMILY TREE

Question: In Genesis 2:16-17 (NIV), If God told Adam ... “you must not eat of the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it you will certainly die.”

Genesis 5:5, Altogether, Adam lived a total of 930 years, and then he died.

Adam and Eve had many children in their long lives, according to Jewish tradition they had as many as 33 sons and 23 daughters. So what happened to God telling Adam if he eats from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil he shall surely die? The Apostle Peter tells us the answer to this mystery of scripture.

2 Peter 3:8, But do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day.

Psalms 90:4, For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it passes by, or like a watch in the night.

If indeed scripture is true, Peter and the book of Psalms tell us that 1 day is like a thousand years to the Lord. Then what God told Adam would be correct. Adam lived 930 years, just short of God's 1 day time period. Adam lived and he sinned and what God took him home just short of his 1-day anniversary. We all thank God Adam and Eve had a lot of kids before then.

ADAM'S FAMILY TREE

Ten Generations from Adam to Noah

The lineage of Adam. Grew rapidly during the first millennium after creation. To get an understanding of the vast number of people living on the earth in the days before the flood. You may want to turn in your Bible Genesis 5:3-31 to find a listing of the descendants of Adam. If you include Adam there are a total of 10 of what is called the Patriarchs of the Bible.

Lets look at one of the Patriarch's ... Enoch

Enoch was the 7th in the Patriarchal line, the 6th after Adam.

Note: Enoch is considered to be the first official prophet of the Old Testament. His name is said to mean to teach, and also, dedicated. Enoch was also the father of Methuselah, and he was miraculously raptured into heaven, and therefore never tasted physical death.

Genesis 5:21-24, ²¹ When Enoch had lived 65 years, he became the father of Methuselah. ²² After he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked faithfully with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters. ²³ Altogether, Enoch lived a total of 365 years. ²⁴ Enoch walked faithfully with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.

Like each of his forefathers, Enoch also begot many sons and daughters, after Methuselah was born. Adding even more to the growth of the human race, because he had a massive number of descendants. Remarkably during the short 365 five years of his life, Enoch was able to see many of his grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and likely some of his great-great-grandchildren, thus, with the combined lineages of Adam, Seth, Enos, Cainan. Mahalaleel, Jared, and Enoch, the population of the pre-flood world continued to extensively grow larger and larger.

But what happened to Enoch?

Enoch was considered a righteous man who did everything God had asked of him and he walked with God. What a great testimony of having fellowship and a life lived for God and how it impacted the life of one of the great Patriarchs’.

Genesis 5:24, Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

Hebrew 11:5, By faith Enoch was taken up so that he would not see death; and he was not found because God took him up; for before he was taken up, he was attested to have been pleasing to God.

Noah's Time in the Ark

Gen. 7:6-9,16 - February 10th, Noah (600 y.o.) enters the Ark, the Lord shuts the door

Gen. 7:11 - February 17th begins to rain for 40 days, fountains of the deep erupt, windows of heaven opened up.

Gen. 7:24, 8:3-4 - Waters on the Earth for 150 days = July 17th the Ark rests on Ararat

Gen. 8:5 - Oct.1st Tops of the Mountains appear

Gen. 8:13 - January 1st Noah sees the ground dry

Gen. 8:14 - February 27th Noah leaves the Ark he is 601 y.o.

Total time in the Ark 382 days

NOAH BUILDS the ARC

And then God had something to say to After 1656 years God had seen enough, with a message.

Genesis 6:3-4, “³Then the Lord said, forever, because he is also flesh;

years.” ⁴ The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of mankind, and they bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.”

Noah that would change the world.
and the spirit of God came to Noah

“My Spirit will not remain with man nevertheless, his days shall be 120

Noah spent the 120 years with his three sons building the Ark and preaching the message of repentance to the people who daily came to watch, and no doubt mocked the work Noah was doing. Out of the 120 years the scripture records that no one repented ... well maybe until it started to rain.

Then it started to rain, and according to scripture. God sent a flood upon the earth to cleanse it of unthinkable evils brought on by fallen angels, horrible giants, and possibly monstrous creatures. We will delve into this ancient history. We will study the despicable, and perverse deeds that gave rise to a pandemic of evil and the judgment that had to follow as a result. Much of the atrocities are the basis of ancient Greek Mythology and can still be found today.

Genesis 6:10-14

¹⁰ And Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. ¹¹ Now the earth was corrupt in the sight of God, and the earth was filled with violence. ¹² And God looked on the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for humanity had corrupted its way upon the earth. ¹³ Then God said to Noah, “The end of humanity has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence because of people; and behold, I am about to destroy them with the earth. ¹⁴ Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood; you shall make the ark with compartments, and cover it inside and out with pitch.

In verse 12 above, it says that “all flesh had corrupted his way.” The word corrupted means, blemished, and it alerts us to the fact that everyone, except for Noah and his family (Gen. 6:8,9,18), had become corrupted, or blemished by the wicked and evil, and malevolent activities that were taking place on the earth and the days preceding the flood.

In Genesis 6:8 it states that Noah had found grace in the eyes of the Lord. What had to come for those who rejected the words of his servant Noah. Those who refused to repent of their grave misdeeds. So, we find that in Genesis 6:8 that Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord, and if Noah did so could anyone who would repent of their ways. God never turns anyone away who repents. Now the Lord gave Noah the tools, including blueprints, to do something that had never been done before. God also made Noah a passionate preacher of righteousness who faithfully warned of what was to come to those around Him that had not yet been contaminated with the DNA of the fallen angels. There was still time to repent. Turn to God and receive his provision of rescue, the Ark of safety that God given to Noah to build.

Genesis 6:17, ¹⁷ Now behold, I Myself am bringing the flood of water upon the earth, to destroy all flesh in which there is the breath of life, from under heaven; everything that is on the earth shall perish. ¹⁸ But I will establish My covenant with you; and you shall enter the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁹ And of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. ²⁰ Of the birds according to their kind, and of the animals according to their kind, of every crawling thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every kind will come to you to keep them alive. ²¹ As for you, take for yourself some of every food that is edible, and gather it to yourself; and it shall be food for you and them.” ²² So Noah did these things; according to everything that God had commanded him, so he did.

Titus 1:2: (KJV) ² In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began:

Ezekiel 1:4-21, ⁴ As I looked, behold, a high wind was coming from the north, a great cloud with fire flashing intermittently and a bright light around it, and in its midst something like gleaming metal in the midst of the fire. ⁵ And within it there were figures resembling four living beings. And this was their appearance: they had human form. ⁶ Each of them had four faces and four wings. ⁷ Their legs were straight and their feet were like a calf's hoof, and they sparkled like polished bronze. ⁸ Under their wings on their four sides were human hands. As for the faces and wings of the four of them, ⁹ their wings touched one another; their faces did not turn when they moved, each went straight forward. ¹⁰ As for the form of their faces, each had a human face; all four had the face of a lion on the right and the face of a bull on the left, and all four had the face of an eagle. ¹¹ Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above; each had two touching another being, and two covering their bodies. ¹² And each went straight forward; wherever the spirit was about to go, they would go, without turning as they went. ¹³ In the midst of the living beings there was something that looked like burning coals of fire, like torches moving among the living beings. The fire was bright, and lightning was flashing from the fire. ¹⁴ And the living beings ran back and forth like bolts of lightning.

¹⁵ Now as I looked at the living beings, behold, there was one wheel on the ground beside the living beings, for each of the four of them. ¹⁶ The appearance of the wheels and their workmanship was like sparkling topaz, and all four of them had the same form, their appearance and workmanship being as if one wheel were within another. ¹⁷ Whenever they moved, they moved in any of their four directions without turning as they moved. ¹⁸ As for their rims, they were high and awesome, and the rims of all four of them were covered with eyes all around. ¹⁹ Whenever the living beings moved, the wheels moved with them. And whenever the living beings rose from the earth, the wheels rose also. ²⁰ Wherever the spirit was about to go, they would go in that direction. And the wheels rose just as they did; for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels. ²¹ Whenever those went, they went; and whenever those stopped, they stopped. And whenever those rose from the earth, the wheels rose just as they did; for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.
